

Directions to Microsoft Building 33/Conference Center

(Business Center Desk 425-703-1800)

The Microsoft Conference Center is at the main Microsoft Headquarters Campus in Redmond in the eastern suburbs of Seattle, across Lake Washington.

From SeaTac Airport: Exit the airport northward and take SR-518 to the east until it becomes I-405, which you then follow north toward Bellevue for about 16 miles, until you reach SR-520. See next directions.

From I-405 in Bellevue

Exit onto SR-520 East, toward Redmond

Go about three miles to the 40th Street Exit and you are almost there

Turn RIGHT (East) onto NE 40th St

Turn RIGHT (South) onto 159th Ave NE

Bear LEFT (South) onto NE 36th Way

You will see Executive Briefing Center – Round the corner to the left and arrive at the Conference Center at 16070 NE 36th Way, Redmond, WA 98052

From I-5 in Seattle

Take I-5 Exit 168B, onto SR-520 East

Take SR-520 about 10 miles across the Lake Washington floating bridge, through Bellevue, and past I-405

Take the 40th Street Exit and you are almost there

Turn RIGHT (East) onto NE 40th St

Turn RIGHT (South) onto 159th Ave NE

Bear LEFT (South) onto NE 36th Way

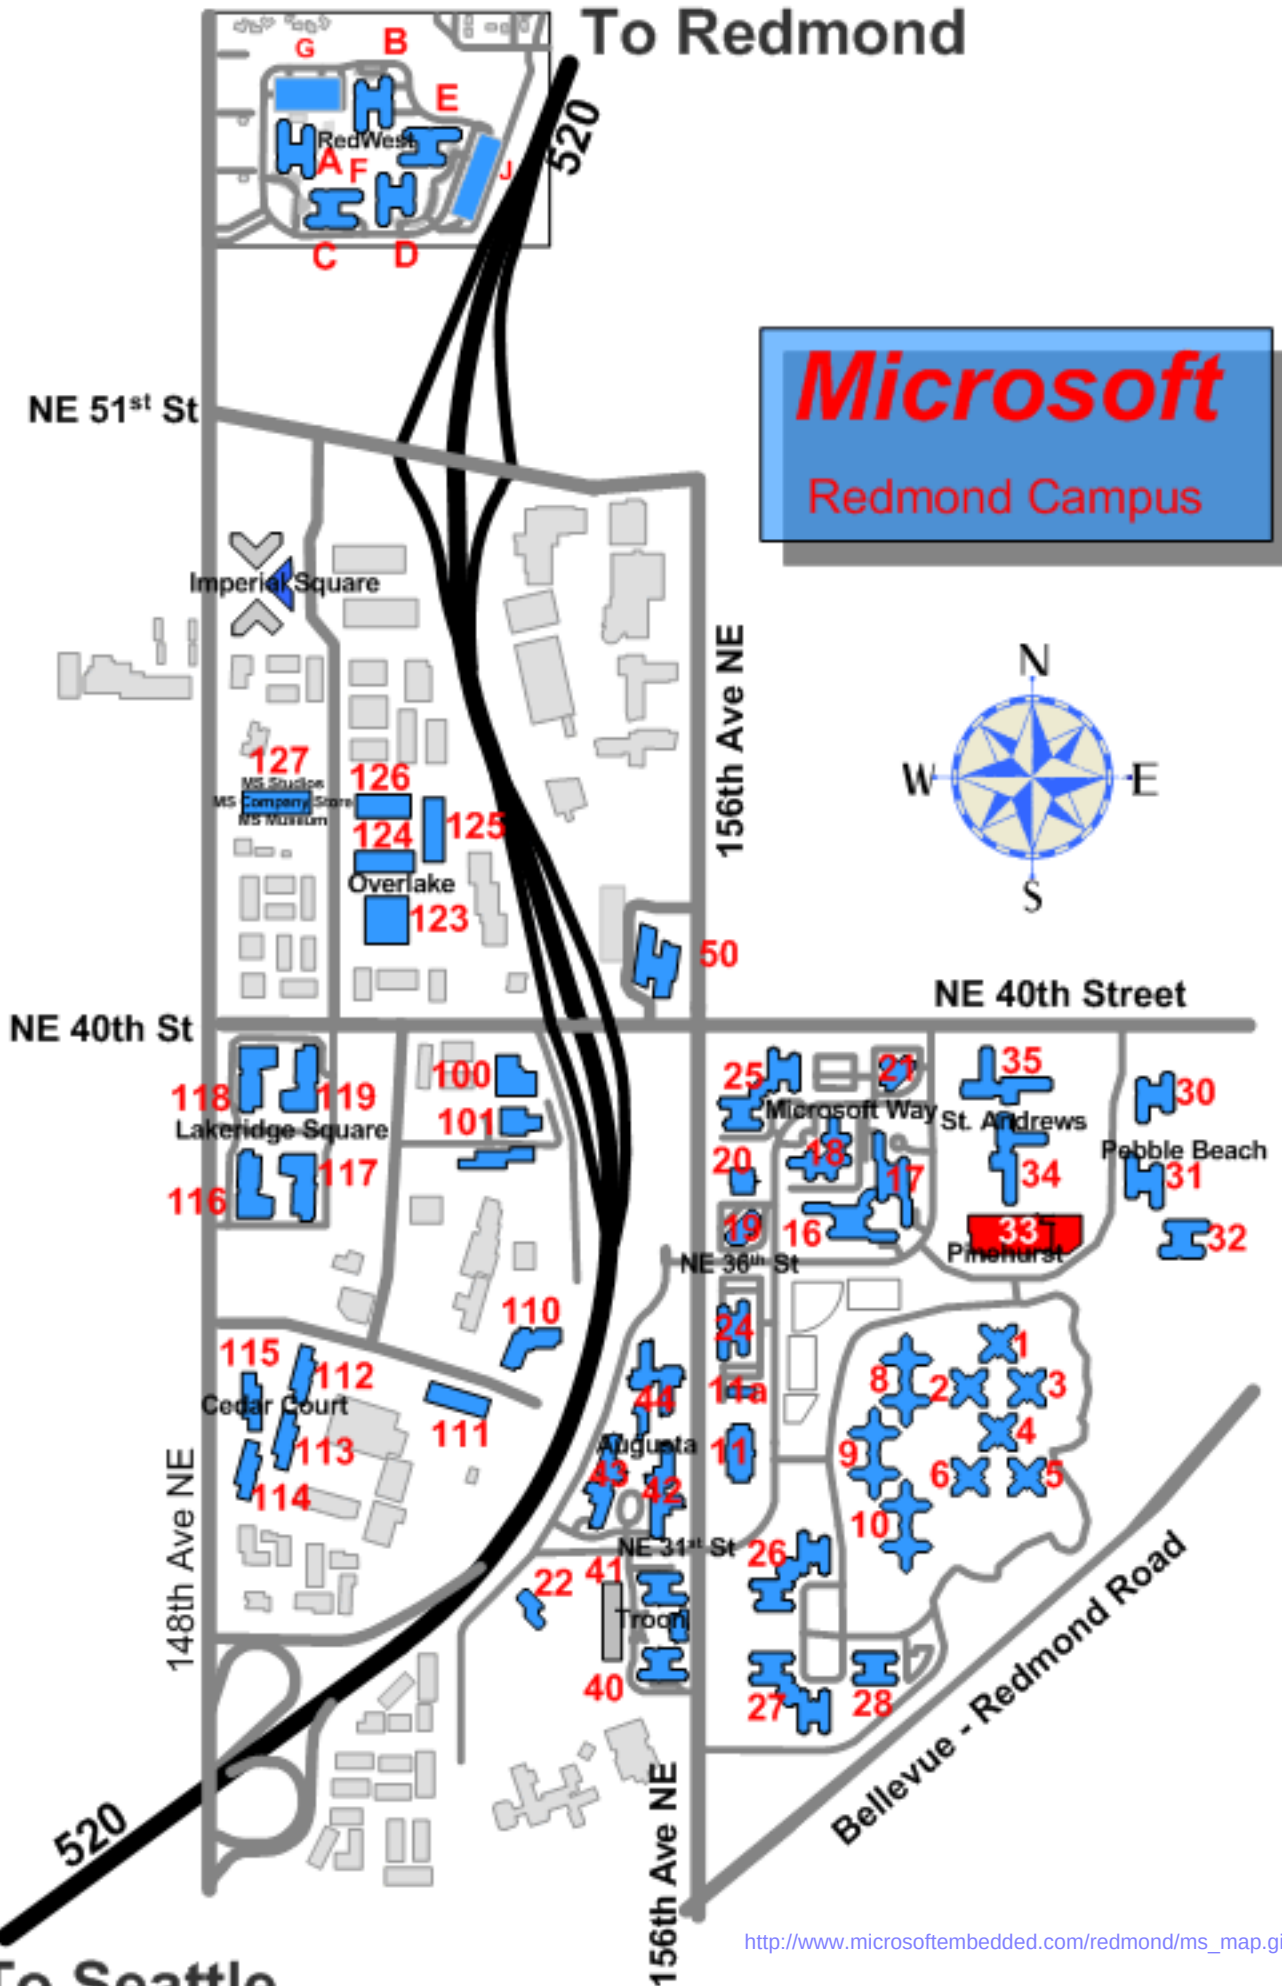

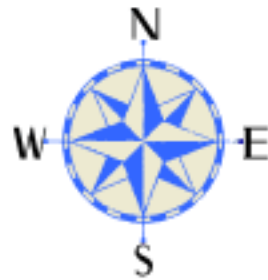

You will see Executive Briefing Center – Round the corner to the left and arrive at the Conference Center at 16070 NE 36th Way, Redmond, WA 98052

Map of the Microsoft Campus on the Following Page

To Redmond

Microsoft

Redmond Campus

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

From Seattle to Redmond

Sound Transit 545 (Seattle to Redmond)

<http://www.soundtransit.org/riding/fac/stexpress/schedules/545.asp>

From 4th & University to SR-520 and NE 40th (0.6 miles from the conference) and connects with Metro Route 245

http://transit.metrokc.gov/cftemplates/show_schedule.cfm?BUS_ROUTE=245&TYPE=0 which brings you within 0.3 miles of the conference.