Subject: Film Screening Approval

Re: Film Screening and Reception

at the National Museum of Natural History on Tuesday, June 23, 2005 from 6:00 - 9:30 p.m.

The film, "The Privileged Planet," was reviewed by the Associate Director for Research and Collections of the Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History, and approval was granted for this film to be screened in the Baird Auditorium at the above mentioned event co-sponsored with the Discovery Institute.
